Special issue being published to commemorate the birth centenary of V. I. Lenin, the founder of Soviet state.

Contributing in this special issue are the prominent social and political workers of the Soviet Union, scientists, historians and writers. The editorial board has obtained authentic photographs from the state archives which depict the life and activities of the great leader.

This will be an enlarged issue. There will be a coloured supplement which will include a portrait of Lenin and reproduction of the paintings.

One of the main attractions of this special issue is the inclusion of a number of authentic photographs depicting Lenin's life and activities.

This special issue will also contain articles elaborating Leninist thoughts about the friendship among nations and the practical application of these ideas by the 'first workers' and peasants' Government.

There will be other interesting articles for readers like "Science and Socialist Society" Characterisation of Lenin On Stage and Screen" From Lenin's Mail Bag". Lastly, the issue will contain reports about the places connected with this great statesman, thinker and leader of the toiling masses and how they look today.

In short, this special issue of the SOVIET UNION will virtually be a popular, factual, illustrated and concise encyclopaedia of the Soviet land, founded under the leadership of Lenin.
